Since 2001, Mr. Tyrer has been the Co-President of The Cohen Group, a business advisory firm providing strategic advice and assistance in business development, regulatory affairs, deal sourcing, and capital raising activities. Prior to joining The Cohen Group, he served as the Chief of Staff to U.S. Secretary of Defense William Cohen from 1997 to 2001, where he provided strategic advice on all aspects of national security policy and acted as the primary liaison between the Department of Defense and Congress, the White House, other federal agencies, and private industry. Previously, Mr. Tyrer served 21 years on Capitol Hill, including as Chief of Staff to Senator William Cohen from 1989 to 1996 and Campaign Manager for U.S. Senator Susan Collins in her successful 1996 U.S. Senate campaign.

Mr. Tyrer is a graduate of the University of Maine and a member of the Advisory Board of the University of Maine's School of Policy and International Affairs. He is a Senior Advisor at the Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington and is also a member of the Advisory Board of the Public Diplomacy Collaborative at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. Mr. Tyrer served as a member of the Board of Directors of EDO Corporation, a military and commercial products and professional services company from 2003 to 2007, where he was a Member of the Audit, Compensation, and Management Development Committees. He also served on the Board of Directors of Clean Air Power Limited, a publicly-traded sustainable energy company based in the United Kingdom from 2014 until the company was acquired in 2015.

"I'm very proud to welcome Bob Tyrer to FLIR's Board of Directors," said Earl Lewis, Chairman of the Board of FLIR Systems. "Bob's depth of experience in public policy, regulatory affairs, and national defense will be very relevant to FLIR in the growth of our business. I expect Bob to be an invaluable resource to FLIR."
